

<https://climax.enterprises/careers/heavy-line-diesel-mechanic/>

Heavy Line Diesel Mechanic

Description

Sammy's Disposal is looking for experienced Heavy Line Diesel Technicians available for hire immediately. We're offering top pay and benefits for qualified candidates!

Responsibilities

- Performs repairs as needed in accordance with OEM manufacturers recommendations and State and Federal regulations.
- Inspects equipment for defects, determines root causes and completes repairs for appropriate correction to defects found.
- May install accessories such as two-way radios, cameras and GPS systems.
- Has adequate understating /operational use of diagnostic software for diesel and gas engines, braking systems, etc.
- Parts procurement and inventory control.
- Communicate with drivers, operations staff and other Fleet technicians regarding maintenance difficulties and/or advises or assists as necessary.
- Perform safety inspections; assists with annual Michigan State Police inspections.
- Appropriate housekeeping of maintenance facility.
- Prepares vehicle maintenance reports and submits to Regional Fleet Manager.
- Reviews technical reports, vehicle maintenance manuals, electrical diagrams, and meter readings to evaluate, diagnose, and repair.
- Consults with vendors concerning ordering or use of parts.
- Consults with drivers and other mechanics regarding maintenance problems and/or needs and advises or assists as necessary.
- Properly disposes of unusable replacement parts such as batteries, brake drums, as well as used motor oil, transmission fluid, and antifreeze.
- May change oil and repair or replace tires.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Qualifications

- Useful understanding of preventative maintenance inspection and repair processes to include but not limited to:
 - Diesel and gas engines
 - Air and hydraulic braking systems
 - Suspension systems
 - Drivetrain assemblies
 - Automatic transmissions
 - Differentials
 - Hydraulic lift systems
 - Electrical systems
 - Body assemblies

Experience

Hiring organization

Climax Enterprises

Employment Type

Full-time

Duration of employment

Permanent

Job Location

Battle Creek, Michigan

Working Hours

8 hour shift
Monday – Friday

Base Salary

$ 25 - $ 35

Date posted

June 16, 2023

- Heavy Line Diesel Mechanic – 2 years (preferred)
- Garbage Truck Experience – (preferred)

Job Benefits

- 401k
- 401k Matching
- Health Insurance
- PTO

Contacts

Employment@climax.enterprises